

There's A Stranger (Savior)

By Craig Colley
Copyright 1998 Coliday Music

INTRO 8 Bars

1st VERSE

You walked into my world without warning and your timing was impeccable the right now I wake to you every morning and I fall asleep with you every night but who are you

1st CHORUS

There's a stranger in my life
there's a stranger in my day
and there's danger
that this stranger
is going to change my life

There's a stranger in my eyes
There's a stranger I can't deny
and there's danger
that this stranger
is going to change my life

2ND VERSE

Lately I found myself thinking How your life has changed the way that I live And lately I've also discovered That the love in my hearts meant to give So, who am I

2nd CHORUS

There's a stranger in my life
there's a stranger in my day
and there's danger
that this stranger
is going to change my life

There's a stranger in my eyes
There's a stranger I can't deny
and there's danger
that this stranger
is going to change my life

BRIDGE

I am on my knees praying to show you And find a way to heaven above Found myself wanting to know you Found myself wanting your love...

3rd CHORUS (REPEAT 2X)

Now there's a Savior in my life
There is a savior in my day
No more danger
Because this Savior
Has come to save my life

Now there's a Savior in my eyes
There is a Savior I can't deny
No more danger
Because this Savior
Has come to save my life

TAG & AD LIB

Has come to save my life